Re: Sunlight Financial LLC, et al., v. Samuel Duncan Hinkle, et al.
USDC Southern District of New York - Index No. 21-CV-6680 (JMF)(BCM)

Dear Magistrate Judge Moses:

On behalf of non-party Hudson Sustainable Group LLC (“Hudson”), we write to request a one-week extension of time – until August 4, 2022 – to submit the letter-brief this Court has permitted Hudson to file in the above-referenced case.

By Order dated July 21, 2022, the Court ordered that if “either Hudson or Muckleroy wishes to be heard with respect to the Muckleroy Google Drive and laptop, each such non-party may submit a letter-brief, in compliance with Moses Ind. Prac. § 1(d), no later than July 28, 2022.” (Dckt. No 76.)

Hudson respectfully requests a one-week extension of time to file its letter-brief because in addition to other work-related obligations and deadlines, Hudson’s counsel have: (1) a brief due before the Illinois Supreme Court on August 1, 2022; and (2) a response to a motion to compel in a private arbitration due on August 2, 2022. The requested extension will allow Hudson’s counsel to work on the letter-brief after these other filings are submitted and to meet and confer with the parties to determine if they can resolve the Muckleroy-related issues. Counsel for all the parties have consented to the requested extension. Hudson has not previously sought any extensions in this case.

Respectfully,

Philip H. Cohen
